RED AND WHITE FLEET FEATURES FAMILY FUN BAY AND LAND TOUR COMBOS

(San Francisco, CA) --- Red And White Fleet has just announced a new line up of fun-for-the-family bay and land tour combos that are full of adventure, multiple perspectives and better value. In addition to coming aboard and enjoying the choice of either San Francisco's original Golden Gate Bay Cruise or the seasonal California Sunset Cruise, visitors to the city will also have the option to choose a land component as well to provide a comprehensive "view" of the city.

To begin, guests will choose a bay tour. First option is the Golden Gate Bay Cruise, which is a one-hour narrated cruise under the Golden Gate Bridge and around Alcatraz Island. Highlights include landmarks of San Francisco history, including life at the Barbary Coast during the Gold Rush, the building of the Golden Gate Bridge, Angel Island's history as an immigration station and the Federal Penitentiary of Alcatraz. The second option is the California Sunset Cruise, which is particularly compelling for families. On this relaxed two-hour cruise, guests enjoy spectacular sunset views, live guitar music and hearty appetizers that include a variety of sandwiches, salads, fruit and dessert. Passengers will cruise past the infamous island of Alcatraz, around Angel Island National Park, under the majestic span of the Golden Gate and along the beautiful shorelines of Tiburon and Sausalito as the sun sets over the Pacific Ocean.

From the bay, passengers will then have their choice of several land tours, including everything from wacky children's tours such as Amphibious (land and water) vehicles and motorized cable cars to open air city busses and a myriad of destinations like Yosemite, Muir Woods and Monterey/Carmel.

Pricing for the combo bay/land tours ranges from only $18-178, depending on age of passenger and tours taken. For information and reservations about the Red and White Fleet's specialty San Francisco bay and land tour combos, call (415) 673-2900 or visit www.redandwhite.com.
